RE: PROCLAMATION – MERCER CO. COALITION FOR HEALTHY COMMUNITIES

This day on motion of Greg Puckett, Commissioner, seconded by Bill Archer, Commissioner, the Commission voted unanimously to approve a Proclamation with the Mercer County Coalition for Healthy Communities to proclaim April 2022 as Alcohol Awareness Month.

Mercer County Coalition for Healthy Communities
Mercer County, WV
Proclamation

Whereas, according to the U.S. Census 2016, 21.1% of county residents live in poverty. Mercer County consistently ranks in the bottom for economic, health, and well-being factors.

Whereas, alcohol and tobacco use are prevalent. In 2013, Mercer County ranked 6th highest in the state in alcohol-related diagnosis and 8th highest in alcohol dependence diagnosis.

Whereas, Mercer County also ranked 6th highest in the state for chronic liver-cirrhosis.

Whereas, local parents believe alcohol and tobacco are severe problems; and school staff believe they have insufficient resources. In Mercer County, the school attendance rate is 92.8%; graduation rate 83.4%; and dropout rate 1.2%. Additionally, students are disciplined at a higher rate than statewide.

Whereas, according to the Center of Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as of 2020, underage drinking is a significant public health issue in the U.S.

Whereas, alcohol is the most used substance among youth in the U.S.

Whereas, 8% of 8th grade students drank alcohol and 4% binge drink. 29% of 12th grade students have drank and 14% binge drink.

Whereas, youth that use alcohol are more likely to experience academic struggles, social problems, low participation in youth activities, legal issues, unwanted/ unplanned/ unprotected sexual activity, higher change of physical and sexual violence, increase in suicide and homicide, more likely to be involved in a vehicle accident, memory loss, change in brain development, alcohol poisoning, and misuse of other substances.

Whereas, in 2010, 1 in 5 teenagers that were involved in a fatal vehicle accident had alcohol in their system.

Whereas, 85% of youth that drink and drive have also reported binge drinking, Binge drinking is defined as having 5 or more alcoholic drinks within a couple of hours.

Whereas, youth whose parents binge drink are more likely to drink alcohol than others.

Now, Therefore Be It Resolved that the Mercer County Coalition for Healthy Communities and the Mercer County Commission do hereby proclaim April 2022 as Alcohol Awareness Month. We call upon all community sectors and citizens to support efforts that will increase community awareness and support for individuals and families coping with alcoholism in our community.

Dated this 8th day of April 2022.

RE: PROCLAMATION – CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL FLAG DAY

This day on motion of Bill Archer, Commissioner, seconded by Greg Puckett, Commissioner, the Commission voted unanimously to proclaim April 2022 as Child Abuse Prevention Month and Friday, April 29, 2022 as Children's Memorial Flag Day in Mercer County, West Virginia.

PROCLAMATION
APRIL IS CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH &
CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL FLAG DAY IS APRIL 29, 2022

WHEREAS, children are the future of WV and we continue to work towards a state that is greater for them than the one we grew up in; and

WHEREAS, finding solutions to child maltreatment requires input and action from everyone, and education efforts increase public awareness about ways to recognize and prevent child abuse; and

WHEREAS, prevention remains the best defense for our children and families, and

WHEREAS, the Children's Memorial Flag has become a recognizable symbol of the need to do a better job of protecting children; and

WHEREAS, approximately 3 million children are reported abused and neglected in this country each year; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention programs succeed because of partnerships created among social service agencies, schools, religious and civic organizations, law enforcement agencies, and the business community; and

WHEREAS, all citizens should become more aware of the negative effects of child abuse and its prevention within their communities, and become involved in supporting parents to raise their children in a safe, nurturing environment;

NOW, THEREFORE We, The Mercer County Commission do hereby proclaim April 2022 as CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH and the designated month to display the CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL FLAG in Mercer County, WV. We further designate, Friday, April 29, 2022 as CHILDREN'S MEMORIAL FLAG DAY and invite the Mercer County Citizens to attend a Rededication Service and Remembrance Walk at the Mercer County Courthouse at Noon on April 29, 2022.

RE: PROCLAMATION – PROVIDER APPRECIATION DAY

This day on motion of Bill Archer, Commissioner, seconded by Greg Puckett, Commissioner, the Commission voted unanimously to proclaim May 6, 2022 as Provider Appreciation Day in Mercer County.

PROCLAMATION BY MERCER COUNTY COMMISSION
PROVIDER APPRECIATION DAY
MAY 6, 2022

WHEREAS, Child Care Aware® of America and other organizations nationwide are recognizing Child Care Providers on this day; and

WHEREAS, over half the children under the age of six nationwide are estimated to spend some time in a nonparental care arrangement on a weekly basis, which provides critical enrichment opportunities and nurtures development for children of all backgrounds and is a vital building block of our state economy; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic has created tremendous hardship for child care providers and the families of Mercer County who depend on them, who have continued to meet the needs of families while risking their health and financial stability to remain open; and

WHEREAS, Mercer County recognizes these hardships and has provided much-needed relief to providers to help sustain the viability of child care; and

WHEREAS, our future depends on the quality of the early childhood experiences provided to young children today; support for high-quality child care represents a worthy commitment to our children's future.

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, THE MERCER COUNTY COMMISSION hereby proclaim May 6, 2022, as Provider Appreciation Day in Mercer County and urge all citizens to recognize Child Care Providers for their important work.
